

Need some help with your HOME?

Did you know?

There are many local charities that can assist you with your home. They can help to make your money go further and offer support.

Some sell affordable furniture and appliances to help you furnish your home. Foodbanks can provide short-term support in a crisis, while others can help with utility bills or offer support with disabilities.

We've selected some of the local charities you could approach, and there are lots more you can find online and on the high street too.

Turn over for details on just a few. Please note, where you see an asterix you may need third party support for some services provided.

Please contact our Benefit and Debt Advice team if you need assistance.
